Paul Armbruster v. T-Mobile U.S.A., Inc.
AAA Case No: 01-16-0003-4446

CG Docket No. 02-278

Petition for Expedited Declaratory Ruling
Regarding a Consumers Right to Revoke
Consent under the TCPA

JOINT MOTION TO WITHDRAW EXPEDITED
PETITION FOR DECLARATORY RULING

On January 23, 2017, Paul Armbruster (“Petitioner”) filed an Expedited Petition for Declaratory Ruling or Alternatively a Rulemaking Regarding a Consumer’s Right to Revoke Consent Under the TCPA (the “Petition”) asking the Federal Communications Commission to clarify certain issues relating to the Telephone Consumer Protection Act and his relationship with his wireless carrier, T-Mobile. The Petition was filed following a ruling adverse to the Petitioner in an arbitration proceeding between the Petitioner and T-Mobile. The Petitioner has filed a motion for reconsideration with the arbitrator. Pending a decision on the motion for reconsideration, the parties resolved their dispute, rendering the requests set forth in the Petition moot. Accordingly, the Parties hereby respectfully request that Petitioner be granted leave to withdraw the Petition.

This 17th day of February, 2017.
